

2019

LAAFA IN THE SPOTLIGHT AT CAC GOLD MEDAL EXHIBITION

Once again, LAAFA shined at the 108th Annual Gold Medal Exhibition held by the California Art Club. This year brought an array of diverse artworks as well as a handful of LAAFA affiliated artists – Rohini Sen, Nikita Budkov, Adam Matano, Andrea Mosley, Rodolfo Rivademar, and Leon Okun. This year, the CAC returns to the building of the former Pasadena Museum of California Art (PMCA) for their 108th exhibition, and CAC members couldn't feel more at home.

(Left to right) Nikita Budkov, Rohini Sen, and Leon Okun at the 108th Annual Gold Medal Exhibition Artists'

Gala Reception.

I myself had the pleasure to attend this year's Artists' Gala Reception, and it was an amazing experience witnessing all the talent around the gallery spaces. What I found most fascinating was the amount of hours of work each artist poured into their artworks, creating these amazing pieces of art that uphold the traditional qualities and craftsmanship.